St. Louis Summer Finance Institute Program

The St. Louis Summer Finance Institute is currently accepting applications for their 2007 summer program. Comptroller Darlene Green started the Summer Finance Program in 1996 to teach high school students about the various careers in finance.

This program offers paid internships to high school students at some of St. Louis' largest and most prestigious finance firms, such as A.G. Edwards, UMB, City of St. Louis-Comptroller's Office, and many more.

If you know a student that is pursuing a career in finance or would like to learn about a career in finance, this may be the program for them. To qualify for this program, you must be a sophomore, junior or senior for the 2006-2007 school year, live in the City of St. Louis, and have a GAP of 3.0 or higher. Application deadline is close of business day, April 13, 2007. For more information or to receive an application, call Judy Armstrong at 589-6972.
