

2009 league participation opportunities

JFL Monday Night Games

HISTORY

The JFL was founded in 1960 to give children between the ages of 7 and 14 the opportunity to play organized tackle football. Each year, the JFL organization teams up with youth sports organizations to provide good fundamental coaching for more than 3000 youths within the St. Louis metro area. The St. Louis Junior Football League is a registered non-profit organization made up entirely of volunteers.

WHAT'S IMPORTANT ABOUT STL TV?

STL TV provides government-related informational television programs to the residents of the City of St. Louis. The channel, which is available to basic cable subscribers, serves as a vital link in making local government more accessible to the community via cable television.

STL TV is operated 24-hours daily and has logged thousands of production hours in pursuit of its mission to inform, educate and promote City government operations. STL TV has served as a vehicle to promote city neighborhoods and collaborated with many civic organizations, which has resulted in a diversity of programs not found on any other local station.
